

ATTENTION

All Applicants Please Read Carefully

Two M. Graham Clark Awards may be presented. One award is given to a Missouri Teacher who teaches at the Elementary School Level. One award is given to a Missouri Teacher who teaches at either the middle school or high school level.

Both of these award winners will be the guests of the MOSSAR at the April State Meeting Luncheon.

The Middle School/High School winner will be submitted to the National SAR committee to be considered for the Tom & Betty Lawrence NATIONAL teacher award. Elementary teachers are not eligible for this award.

Therefore, elementary teachers should complete only the information requested on the two following pages labeled “MOSSAR M. Graham Clark Teacher of the Year Award”.

Middle School or High School teachers need not complete that form, but should instead complete the Tom & Betty Lawrence American History Teacher Award form found here: <https://www.sar.org/education/awards/american-history-teacher-award>

These teachers should be sure to complete the release found at the link above and to read carefully, for additional information RE rules and the prizes offered at the National level.

For any other questions or concerns, contact your local SAR Chapter or the State Teacher Award Chairman: J. Y. Miller – j.y.miller@sbcglobal.net .
